STATE NOTICES

Notice for California Residents – A married applicant may apply for a separate account. If your credit request is declined, you refuse our counter offer, your account is terminated, or there is an Unfavorable change in terms made to your account and our decision is based, in whole or in part, on information contained in a consumer credit report, you have the right to obtain a copy of your consumer credit report from the credit reporting agency within 60 days. You also have the right to obtain a copy of your consumer credit report from any other credit reporting agency which compiles and maintains files on a nationwide basis. Additionally, you have the right to dispute the accuracy or completeness of any information in a consumer credit report furnished by the consumer credit reporting agency. (California Civil Code Sec. 1785.20)

Notice for New York and Maine Residents – A consumer credit report may be requested in connection with this application or in connection with updates, renewals or extensions of any credit granted as a result of this application. If you subsequently ask for this information, you will be informed whether or not such a report was requested and, if so, the name and address of the agency that furnished the report.

Notice for Ohio Residents – The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all credit worthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Notice for Washington Residents – Washington State law against discrimination prohibits discrimination in credit transactions because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex or marital status. The Washington State Human Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Notice for Wisconsin Residents – Wisconsin law provides that no agreement, unilateral statement or court decree relating to marital property shall adversely affect a creditor's interest, unless prior to the time credit is granted the creditor is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision. You must indicate the name of your spouse on the Installment Contract, and the address if different from yours. To help the government fight terrorism, Federal law requires all financial institutions to verify information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for personal information that will allow us to identify you. We will ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents before your loan is completed. You warrant that the information you are furnishing is true, accurate, supplied voluntarily, and not misleading. You authorize us to check your credit, employment histories and credit references; to discuss this application and related information with your retailer, broker, or realtor, if any, to answer questions about your application, credit history and to keep this application whether or not it is approved. We may also verify your employment, pay, assets and debts. You understand that credit is extended at different rates and credit terms and agree that you are applying for an extension of credit and not for a particular rate or particular credit term.

INFORMATION FOR GOVERNMENT MONITORING PURPOSES

The following information is requested by the Federal Government for certain types of loans related to a dwelling, in order to monitor the Lender's compliance with equal credit opportunity, fair housing and home mortgage disclosure laws. You are not required to furnish this information, but are encouraged to do so. The law provides that a Lender may not discriminate neither on the basis of this information, nor on whether you choose to furnish it. If you furnish the information, please provide both ethnicity and race. For race, you may check more than one designation. If you choose not to furnish it, under Federal regulations this Lender is required to note ethnicity, race and sex on the basis of visual observation or surname. If you do not wish to furnish the above information, please check the box below.
